A Usable Collection

Essays in Honour of Jaap Kloosterman on Collecting Social History

Established in 1935, the International Institute of Social History (IISH) is one of the world's leading research institutes focused on social history and holds one of the richest collections in the field. This volume brings together thirty-five essays in honor of the IISH's longtime director Jaap Kloosterman, who built the institute into a world leader in the field.

Aad Blok is senior research fellow of the International Institute for Social History (IISH) in Amsterdam.

Jan Lucassen is professor emeritus of international and comparative social history at VU University Amsterdam.

Huub Sanders is research staff member for collection development at the IISH.
